In 2017, the Czech Republic had the largest number of credit transfers per capita (171.8) in Europe. The only interbank payment system in the Czech Republic, which handles interbank payments in Czech koruna, is the CERTIS system (Czech Express Real Time Interbank Gross Settlement system). The Czech National Bank this year celebrates the 100th anniversary of the introduction of the Czechoslovak currency and its monetary unit the koruna and the putting into circulation of koruna banknotes and coins.

DID YOU KNOW?

- In 2017, the Czech Republic had the largest number of credit transfers per capita (171.8) in Europe.
- The only interbank payment system in the Czech Republic, which handles interbank payments in Czech koruna, is the CERTIS system (Czech Express Real Time Interbank Gross Settlement system).
- The Czech National Bank this year celebrates the 100th anniversary of the introduction of the Czechoslovak currency and its monetary unit the koruna and the putting into circulation of koruna banknotes and coins.

NUMBER OF CASHLESS TRANSACTIONS PER CAPITA/PER YEAR